

SUBCHAPTER F—AIR TRAFFIC AND GENERAL OPERATING RULES [NEW]

[Reg. Docket No. 5046; Special Federal
Aviation Regs. 6]

PART 91—GENERAL OPERATING AND FLIGHT RULES [NEW]

Prohibition of Air Traffic Over and in Vicinity of Gainesville, Georgia

On May 8, 1964, President Lyndon B. Johnson will address an assemblage at Gainesville, Georgia. The interest of the public in the President and the large number of persons in the assemblage should attract numerous aircraft that will be operated in the area through the airspace generally used by transiting aircraft. In addition the Secret Service has requested that we take appropriate action for his safety and the safety of other persons present.

In order to provide appropriate safeguards for aircraft operations in the area and for persons and property on the ground, I have determined that a temporary restriction must be imposed on air traffic to prohibit the operation of all types of aircraft in the vicinity of Gainesville below 3,000 feet above the surface unless authorized by air traffic control. This authorization may be obtained most readily by communicating with Atlanta Air Route Traffic Control Center.

I have determined that there is a requirement for the immediate adoption of this regulation for the safety of air commerce. Therefore, I find it contrary to the public interest to comply with the notice and public procedure provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act and that good cause exists for making this regulation effective immediately.

In consideration of the foregoing, the following Special Federal Aviation Regulation is adopted:

1. Unless otherwise authorized by air traffic control, no person, during the period 0800 to 1300 hours, e.s.t., on May 8, 1964, may operate an aircraft below 3,000 feet above the surface of the area within five nautical miles horizontally from the center of Gainesville, Georgia.

2. This regulation becomes effective immediately and expires at 1300, e.s.t., May 8, 1964.

(Sec. 307 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958; 49 U.S.C. 1348)

Issued in Washington, D.C., on May 8, 1964.
